OVERVIEW

The 2F-PD24×14 is an oval-profile promotion desk designed for marketing and point-of-contact applications in retail, trade show, and commercial environments. It provides a dedicated surface for displaying brochures, promotional materials, or interactive screens, and its counter height supports comfortable face-to-face engagement with customers or visitors.

The desk is constructed for durability and stability, with a spacious countertop and a refined finish suited to professional settings. At 19 lb, it is manageable for setup and relocation between venues, and its form factor is intended to draw attention while maintaining a clean, sophisticated appearance on the floor.

The unit carries a 1-year warranty.
