OVERVIEW

The M-H-COB-Z-LCON is an L-shaped connector designed for use with 10mm PCB COB and SMD LED strip lights operating on 120V systems. It provides a solderless right-angle connection point, suited for installations where strip runs change direction at a 90-degree angle. Constructed from silicone with a white finish, the connector carries an IP65 rating, supporting use in damp or wet-location installations where moisture resistance is required. The connector is CE certified and backed by a 2-year warranty, and is sold in packs of 5 pieces.
