OVERVIEW

The M-N6-Cap-IB is a silicone end cap sized for 6×12mm LED neon flex channels, available in ice blue. It seals and protects exposed ends of connectors, wires, tubes, and channel openings, blocking the ingress of dust, dirt, and moisture. Suitable for electronics, automotive, plumbing, and general fabrication applications.

Constructed from silicone for durability and flexibility, the cap provides a reliable mechanical seal on small openings and edges. The ice blue color allows for visual differentiation during installation and maintains a clean appearance on finished assemblies. Packaged in bags of 2,000 pieces, suited for contractors and installers requiring bulk quantities.

Backed by a 1-year warranty.
