

Replacement Plastic Hook for RA33HL Pole-Mounted Light Fixture, Discontinued Item

- Molded plastic construction for the RA33HL pole hook
- Mounts at the top of the pole as the primary attachment point
- Rated for 50,000 hour LED lifetime consistent with RA33HL fixture
- Backed by a 1-year warranty
- Listed as a discontinued replacement part for RA33HL

OVERVIEW

The RA33HL-Hook is a replacement plastic hook designed for use with the RA33HL pole-mounted light. It mounts at the top of the pole and serves as the primary hanging or attachment point for the fixture, making it a practical replacement part for installations where the original hook has been damaged or lost.

The hook is rated for use with an LED lifetime of 50,000 hours, consistent with the RA33HL fixture it supports, and is backed by a 1-year warranty. This item is listed as discontinued and is intended for servicing existing RA33HL installations rather than new deployments.
