OVERVIEW

The Nalpi table lamp is a decorative fixture constructed from solid marble and iron, designed for residential and upscale commercial interiors including living rooms, bedrooms, and lounge areas. Its cylindrical marble base provides a stable foundation, while the dome-shaped shade diffuses ambient light evenly across the space.

The combination of natural stone and iron construction gives the fixture a durable, refined character suited to modern, minimalist, and high-end interior applications. The design integrates both materials seamlessly, supporting a warm, diffused illumination profile appropriate for accent and ambient lighting contexts.
