

2-Way Flexible Connector for LED Track Lighting Systems, Black

OVERVIEW

The S-TK3HF-BK is a 2-way flexible connector designed for use with LED track lighting systems. Its flexible construction allows for angled or offset connections between track sections, accommodating installations where rigid straight connectors are not practical. The black finish is suited for track systems where hardware visibility is a design consideration.